Job Title:	Student
Institution:	University of Oregon
Title of Work Used:	Changing Attitudes Towards Women's Labor: How Newspapers Reflect Popular Ideologies
Copyright Holder:	University of Oregon
Publication Status:	Published
Publisher:	Historic Oregon Newspapers
Place of Publication:	Oregon
Publication Year:	1910-1975
Description of Work:	Newspaper articles surrounding women's labor
Date of Evaluation:	June 9, 2023
Date of Intended Use:	June 9, 2023

Describe the Purpose and Character of Your Intended Use:

I would quote these articles in a text editor to use for a university research project surrounding changing attitudes towards women's labor. This has a purpose involving education, and I am not reproducing the articles. I am using individual articles from the newspapers and quoting them for the purpose of text analysis to demonstrate changes over time. I am using this for education purposes, not for profit. I am using a defined corpus of texts (1910-1975), that include specific keywords, but for some of these, the University of Oregon, which I attend, has copyright. The use of these resources are solely for this project which is being made over the course of a few weeks.

Describe the Nature of Your Intended Use of the Copyrighted Work:

The work to use was published in newspapers by press companies and then was digitized by the University. The work that I hope to use is a collection of primary sources, which are non-fiction, thus has a factual nature. The purpose of my project is different than the original purpose of the published work. This collection contains limited content as many of these sources are not accessible in other ways.

Describe the Amount of Your Intended Use in Relation to the Copyrighted Work as a Whole:

I am only using one article out of entire newspapers based on their relevance to my project, and in many instances am only using parts of different articles, not the whole thing. I am only using the parts of the newspaper that are relevant to my project not more.

Describe the Effect of Your Intended Use on the Potential Market or Value of the Copyrighted Work:

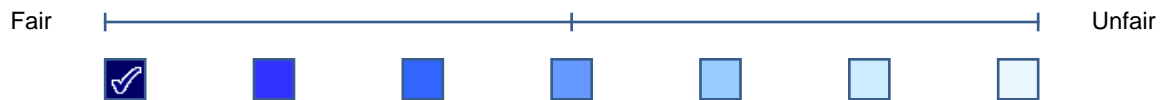

The work is not currently under commercial exploitation. My use of the work has the potential to create or improve the market for the work as I think it could inform other people about this database. Proper attribution will be given with the intended use, I will cite every source that I use for my project.

The Average "Fairness Level," Based on Your Rating of Each of the 4

Factors, Is:

Other Important Criteria:

I think that the copyright for these newspapers is the University of Oregon, where I am a student, and I pay to attend, and is for a project for the University that has copyright, and this database is accessible to students.

Based on the information and justification I have provided above, I, Maria Shimota, am asserting this use is FAIR under Section 107 of the U.S. Copyright Code.
